

Assent

Endodontic Lab Quiz 3
January 30, 2006

Name _____

Seat No. _____

What are the purposes of the root canal sealer?

71. _____

72. _____

We use the lateral condensation technique in this course to obturate root canals. What is the purpose as stated in the lab manual for lateral condensation?

73. _____

Questions 74 through 77 are True and False

74. Gutta percha cones should be disinfected prior to cementing into the root canals by placing them in the salt sterilizer for 10 seconds.

T or ☒ F

75. The liquid used in this course to mix root canal sealer is 5% sodium hypochlorite.

T or ☒ F

76. A root canal spreader is used to move gutta percha within the canal laterally during obturation.

☒ or F

77. After mixing the root canal sealer, the best way to clean the sealer from the glass slab and spatula is with warm water and soap.

F

As stated in the manual,

Give three methods for enlarging the coronal portion of the root canal after the gutta percha is removed for a post and core.

78. _____

79. _____

80. _____