

7

Sophomore Endodontic Lab Quiz 4B

February 11, 2008

Name _____

Seat No. _____

86. In a clinical situation when performing endodontics, you should remove the rubber dam when taking the exact measurement x-ray? _____

T

F

87. The ^{Lingual} buccal canal orifice of a two-rooted maxillary premolar is located just lingual to the central fossa. _____

T

F

Every tooth treated endodontically must be isolated with the rubber dam. Give three reasons stated in lab manual why this is required.

88. To prevent aspiration of tools and materials (Protect patient)
89. To provide a clean aseptic field.
90. To retract the soft tissues

What clamp is recommended in the lab manual for anterior and premolar teeth with crown preparation?

91. 1A, 9

True or False

92. The canal orifice of a single rooted mandibular premolar is located just first buccal to the central fossa. _____

True.